PORTUGUESE IMMIGRANTS.

The Braunfels Arrives With More Than Seven Hundred.

The German steamship Braunfels arrived this morning from the Azores Islands with 735 Portuguese immigrants, men, women, and children. The Braunfels left Port Delgardo on February 6 and stopped at Oporto for four days. The steamer came through the Straits of Magellan. Fine weather was experienced all the way.

The Portuguese are all contract laborers and will be dispatched to their respective destinations on the plantations in a few days. They were landed in quarantine this after-

J. F. Hackfeld, German Consul, A. de Souza Canavarro, Portuguese Charge d'Affaires, Ed. Suhr, representing the firm of H. Hackfeld & Co., to whom the steamer is consigned, and Wray Taylor, secretary of the Board of Immigration, boarded the vessel this morning. The immigrants were found to be a healthy lot of people. There had been six or seven births during the passage and five or six deaths, all of children. The bodies were buried at sea. Most of the immigrants are from St. Miguel. It is reported that the expense of getting these immigrants has been something formidable, be-ing more than two hundred dollars a

The Braunfels is a fine big steamer. After a few days' stay in port she will leave for Manila to load

BISMARCK'S BIRTHDAY.

Dinner by the Consul at the Pacific

There were fifty Germans at the dinner given at the Pacific Club by Consul J. F. Hackfe'd in honor of Prince Bismarck's birthday. Mr. Hackfeld was supported on the right by Judge Widemann and on the left by Mr. Schaefer. Enthusiastic patriotism pervaded the feast. Mr. Hack feld proposed the health of the Emperor, which was cordially drunk with all the honors. Judge Wide mann proposed the health of Prince Bismarck, and an eloquent response was made by Paul Neumann. The Government band played for the dinner and the bandmaster, Prof. H. Berger, who was one of the guests, wore the medals be had earned in three wars of the Fatherland.

The same anniversary was celebrated with a dance and social by the Mannerchor Harmony. It was largely attended and the diversion was morning. E. H. F. Wolters was master of ceremonies, and W. Fetter floor manager.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

Special Cordes Pulls In Thirteen Japanese Women.

Thirteen Japanese women were pulled in by Speciats Gus Cordes and Xavier last night for disorderly conduct. These women have been real nuisances about the streets after hours, and the authorities have decided to put a stop to their actions. The women stand on sidewalks on Maunakea and Nuuanu streets and accost passers-by.

The women were brought up in the District Court this morning and twelve were found guilty as charged. They were sentenced to pay a fine of $10 each and costs. Detective Toma, who acted as interpreter, through instruction by the Court, gave the women a sound lecturing.

THREE PRACTICE BOATS.

One for Fach of the Local Boat Clubs.

Amongst other freight from the colonies there was an invoice of three shells built by Messrs. W. T. Greenland & Sons, boat builders of Melbourne, Australia, to the order of the three boating associations here. Being built of Spanish cedar they are rather a novelty here, as they are the first heats of their most built of the state of first boats of that wood imported. They are built for practice purposes only and the general appearance of their build shows their capacity to stand plenty of work. They are well braced and show evidences of a very careful finish. Taking the low cost of the boats in comparison to the boats heretofore imported the boys cannot be other than satisfied with the trio. The order read that the boats should be facsimiles and it was carried out to the letter, for it would be very difficult, without some distinguishing mark, to tell one boat from the other.

The clubs took the boats to their respective boat houses this forenoon to put them in order for a trial spin.

CHINESE MEMORIAL DAY.

Imposing Ceremonies Over the Graves of Ancestors and Relatives.

To-day is observed by the Chinese as "the tombs festival," corresponding somewhat to the memorial day of the United States, only food and drink instead of floral offerings are paid to the memory of the dead. Large numbers of Chinese have gone to the Pauca and Manoa cemeteries to the Pauca and states viands, in-with roast pig and other viands, in-beverages. The cluding various beverages. The Chinese name of the festival is "Ching Ming." After depositing the articles on the graves, the people hold a feast thereof on the ground. One society celebrating the day is called "Liin Yee Wui," the members of which pay worship to their ancestors. Ng Chan is president of the society for the current year. This evening at 7 o'clock the Chinese Protective Union will hold a meeting for the election of officers and committees for the ensuing year.

NEW STRAMERS.

The Lost Pele Will Be Rep'aced by the I. I. S. N. Co.

Captain W. B. Godfrey, president of the Inter-Island Steam Naviga-tion Co., will leave by the S. S. Ala-meda this afternoon for Sau Fransco on business. Captain Godkept up till three o'clock in the frey's special mission to the Coast is to purchase a large steamer to be used in the company's service. The recent loss of the steamer Pele has compelled the company to run its steamers in double service. It is the intention of Captain Godfrey to purchase a steamer on arrival and have her dispatched without delay to Honolulu. The matter of the construction of a new steamer is also under consideration and Captain Godfrey will likely place the order before he returns. The addition to the fleet is expected at the end of this month.
